

Plan Now to Join Sarah Kalnajs at Great Dog!

August 24, 25 & 26, 2012

Highly praised canine trainer/behaviorist; author of "Language of Dogs" and "Am I Safe" DVD series, Sarah Kalnajs, is a Certified Pet Dog Trainer and Certified Dog Behavior Consultant. She presents at seminars internationally on "all things dog" and has spoken for the Association of Pet Dog Trainers U.S., Australia, Ireland and upcoming New Zealand.

"I attended a two day seminar with Sarah last summer that left me so inspired that I immediately asked Sarah to consider coming to Great Dog in 2012. It is our great fortune that she will be with us in August! If you want to gain a better understanding of dog behavior, how dogs communicate and the best way to work with dogs to modify aggressive behavior you must attend this seminar." Judi Anderson-Wright, MA CPDT KA &Co-owner Great Dog.

Sarah's Schedule:

Friday August 24, Private session for Great Dog staff and limited clients by advance reservation.

Saturday-Sunday August 25 & 26 - 9am-5pm Seminar: Aggression Cover to Cover. Includes aspects of canine communication that will help participants understand their dogs on a more intimate level, learning what behaviors are possible signals of fear, frustration and anxiety that can result in aggressive behavior. Sarah will teach us dog-friendly, scientifically based methods that work.

If you have never had the pleasure of attending a seminar with Sarah this is a must attend for you! If you have never been to Seattle in August, come see the Pacific Northwest in all of its glory!

This educational offering has been approved for 6.5 CEUs for trainers and 7.25 CEUs for behavior consultants. You will be required to submit your certificate number to receive credit at the time of the seminar.
